STOCKFEST '07

The Fans Tournament
Sat 16th June 2007

Stockport County Training Ground Manor Farm, Timperley

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to STOCKFEST '07.

Many of you have travelled long distances to participate today and would like to thank everyone for supporting our event and wish you every success in the competition.

In November 2005 I lost a very close friend when Richard Harnwell passed away after a long battle against Multiple Sclerosis. I am therefore very proud to be hosting this Animo et Fide FC event in his name. All proceeds from the event will be donated to our chosen charity- the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Richard Harnwell was known to most Stockport County fans through his legendary Stockport County commentaries. Richard dedicated huge amounts of his time to support the Hatters and also represented the club as the official club historian. His second Stockport County book was published last year – which incidentally is being auctioned on eBay to raise further funds.

'Tricky' would often take in Mad Hatters games up and down the country, although I suspect the reason for this wasn't the Samba-esque football we played, but rather the chance to sample the local ale!

Richard Harnwell and his son George

I would like to welcome members of Richard's family who are here today and thank them for their help and their support of the inaugural Stockfest competition.

The Richard Harnwell Memorial Cup is the prize on offer today. I hope everyone thoroughly enjoys themselves in what I'm sure will be a competitive but FUN occasion. I look forward to welcoming back today's victors to retain their trophy next year in what we hope will be an bigger and better event!

Tiger Nation FC - Hull City

From James McVie

"Formed as Tiger Chat FC way back in the summer of 1999, when most of the current squad were still at school, in representing Hull City Tiger Nation have established themselves as one of the most active sides in the IFA. In those eight years the Tigers have played over 300 times, have played at such geographically diverse places as Southampton, Motherwell and Brentford, have been IFA league runners up, voted IFA team of the year and won the 2005 Land Ut Gods tournament in Huddersfield - the winning goal was scored from 40 yards out by centre back and team oaf Jon 'Roy Cropper' Robinson.

This season has been something of a mixed bag for the Tigers. They reached the IFA Cup Quarter final, beating Scunthorpe 10-0 with an astonishingly good performance and Grimsby 5-2 before losing 1-0 to a very late goal at Bury, in a game they dominated and really should have won. Some big wins have been racked up - 5-1 at York, 7-1 at Darlington, 11-1 at Aston Villa and most recently, 8-0 at Sheffield United.

However, there have been some frustrating games too, most notably in our last trip to Stockport - another 1-0 defeat. Stand out players this year have been long serving keeper Dave Holmes, who has had his best season yet, the excellent centre back pairing of Jon Robinson (who looks likely to represent England v Scotland at WorldNet) and Danny Wiseman, newcomer Mark Kent, striker Simon Hopkin, wideman John Humphreys, utility man Richard 'Tigger' Brown and centre midfielders Chris Whiting and Danny Carmichael.

The self proclaimed 'Gayest team in the IFA', TNFC thank the organisers for the time and effort put into the tournament and are hopeful of repeating their 2005 Land Ut Gods heroics. JEW ARMY!"

Manager:- James McVie

Captain:- Chris Whiting is the usual captain but as he's unavailable for Stockfest the captaincy will be shared out amongst the team.

Colours:- Black and Amber striped shirts, black shorts, amber socks.

Net Devils - Manchester United

Like Boing FC, the Net Devils don't get through too many games during the season. They do compete regularly at Worldnet however.

Their maanger Doug tells us "The team formed at 'EuroNet 96' in Nottingham and has entered every Worldnet tournament since then. So after 11 years we must have bagged some trophies eh? Sadly no. The only thing we ever won was the Mad Hatters tea party sometime in the late 90s."

Manager:- Doug Crouch

Captain:- Chris Earle

Colours:- Red shirts, white shorts, black socks.

Animo et Fide FC - Stockport County

Formed in the autumn of last year, AeF FC is a new club which was set up to take over the mantle of the original Stockport IFA side- The Mad Hatters. After a year at the helm, Des Hinks took a back seat to concentrate on his own new Sunday League side, with a new committee with defined roles taking his place.

With the first few months of the season lost due to uncertainty surrounding the future of the Mad Hatters, AeF have taken part in 12 league games this term, winning 9, drawing 2 and losing once.

A lot of progress has been made by the new committee culminating in the inaugural Stockfest tournament.

KaisAyr FC - Ayr United

Thanks to Pete from KaisAyr for writing the following:-

KaisAYR - Ayr United's Internet Football Club - formed back in 1999 after receiving the too-good-to-refuse offer of a chance to whip our local rivals, K*Imar*ock on the football field. Things took off from there and we joined the IFA, immediately loving the banter, spirit and excellent Saturdays out.

We were fortunate enough to assemble a strong team back in 2003-04 when we romped to the Scottish IFA League title and clinched the IFA Cup with a penalty shoot-out victory, after a 2-2 draw in normal time. The following season we came so close to retaining both trophies, but finished 2nd in the league to Hearts and runners-up to Fulham in the IFA Cup. Since then, there has been much change but the signs are starting to look promising after a good end to what has been a transitional season.

It would be remiss to mention that we also travelled over to Italy a couple of years ago and beat Muratidentro of Inter Milan 2-0 on their own soil, possibly one of the greatest results in our relatively short history. Italee Italee, we're the famous KaisAYR army and we won in Italee...

Boing FC - West Bromwich Albion

BOING FC was founded in 1996 when members of the BOING Internet mailing list for West Bromwich Albion supporters got together and entered the first ever Internet Football Association tournament in Nottingham.

Normally you'd expect that sort of introduction to be followed by a comment along the lines of "...and they've gone from strength to strength ever since" but that could be slightly misleading - it's really been several periods of frenzied activity travelling all over the country to play games and tournaments and several long, long rests. The trophy cabinet has gathered a few trinkets over the years but still longs for something nice and big to really fill it up.

Recently invigorated by new manager Rich Eades, who enjoys dressing up as a large bird on matchdays and parading round the pitch before kickoff, they perhaps come into Stockfest as one of the "form teams" after winning their last three matches (7-1 over Port Vale, 5-1 at Coventry and 3-2 at Shrewsbury). With Rich away on holiday at the crucial moment, however, Jay "The Shadow" Challoner takes charge of organising this disparate band of people with, nowadays, only vaguely nerdish tendencies. Those suitably equipped and interested can see a bit more at <http://www.myspace.com/boingfc>

Deva Chat FC - Chester City

....according to Nathan Auty

"Deva Chat FC was formed in early 2006 as a breakaway from a previous Chester City "supporters" team (term used very loosely!) managed by an egotistical fat b*****d megalomaniac who alienated many people he met in his solo quest for world domination, aided by local Sunday League "stars" who had no affiliation with Chester City.

The essence of the, then, newly-formed Deva Chat FC was to represent the supporters of Chester City, and the popular supporters messageboard by which the club bears its name, regardless of ability. The team have grown in experience in its first year, together, and joined the IFA in January 2007.

Results for this young side have not been entirely positive since joining the IFA, as we have taken on teams of vastly greater experience, but the players are growing in experience together and more experienced players have since been added to the squad."

FTYBR FC - Mansfield Town

FTYBR FC are a team of Mansfield Town supporters that were formed way back in 1991/92 when the team who only played five a side at the time, won a full kit from the Daily Sport newspaper. We spent two years in that kit with Daily Sport as our shirt sponsors. During our time we have won quite a few trophies in the name of The Stags; the most famous of which was the supporters challenge at Wembley in 1993/94.

The team of today is quite different, only two of the original set up still play. We joined the IFA two seasons ago with virtually a new look side of younger players, who are learning well. Last season we finished in or near the top ten and completed our 20 games. Something as a team we were proud of.

The team name comes from the Mansfield Town fanzine, Follow the yellow brick road, which manager, Steve Hartshorn is the editor.

FC Rearguard - Tranmere Rovers

FC Rearguard are now coming to the end of their fourth season since forming back in 2003. Richard Ault started the side with Tony Lowe upon advice by someone from QPR's fans' team and things swiftly advanced.

After taking many hammerings in their first few seasons, the 06/07 campaign has finally seen the side start to get results thanks to an ideal mix of original squad members and some handy additions along the way.

Impressive wins over the likes of Millwall and Liverpool and rousing performances against teams including Shrewsbury and Bury have put the squad in positive mood ahead of Worldnet and the 07/08 season.

Manager:- Richard Ault

Captain:- Joe McCusker

Colours:- All yellow, change shirts are white.
